

Teaching Content for Book 1

Book 1 I Can!

Letter sounds introduced: a, c, n, s.

Vowel shape card: a

3D cut-out animal: cat

Letter/Sound Activities: Online interactive letter games (5). Printouts: 1. Letters-with-pictures Bookmarks, 2. Puzzles of Letters/Pictures, 3. Spelling with letter cards: a, c, n (can)

Do a picture walk through the book, read/listen to story, then read together with Reading Strategy: #1 Always do a picture walk of the story to get an idea of the content. Before you read each page, look at the picture for clues before reading the text.

Word/Sentence Activities: Online interactive word game (1). Printouts: 1. Sight Words Memory Game Cards: I, can, you (Only learn to read the words: 'I, can, you' - NOT 'jump, slide, run, hide')

Print folding paper book for students to read and illustrate. In the Paper Book, have them add what they jump over, who will they slide with, what/who are they running from/after, what/who are they hiding from. Note: This is the only paper folding book with illustrations on each page: child jumping, a slide, child running, and child hiding. These illustrations are necessary since the Reading Strategy is to 'look at the picture for clues'. The child is not expected to know the words (jump, slide, run, hide) at this stage. They are learning "I, can, you".

Printing from Practice Cards (in Printouts): Start at the top for all letters (as with I). c: Letter c curves up from the top, around to the bottom and up a bit. a: Letter a continues from letter c to go to the top and straight down. n: Letter n starts at the top, goes down to the bottom, back up the line to curve over and go down again without taking the pencil off the paper. (Make a line down the path. Wrong house! Go back up the path and over to the next door's path - not on their grass!) s: For letter s, make a snake from the top. Have it curl its tummy under its head.

Draw and Write: Have the children draw what they can do. Make dotted letters for them to trace their own sentence under their drawing. I can ____.

Oral Language: Student Discussion Questions: 1) What are some things people jump over? 2) Why might the child be hiding?

Teaching Content for Book 2

Book 2 Black Cat

Letter sounds introduced: k, m, b, h, l, t

Other words to sound out: am, ham

Letter/Sound Activities: Online interactive letter games (6). Printouts: 1. Letters-with-pictures Bookmarks, 2. Puzzles of Letters/Pictures, 3. Magic Box Phonics cards, 4. Spelling with letter cards: a, m, t (at, mat, am).

Do a picture walk through book, read/listen to story, then read together with Reading

Strategies: #1 Always do a picture walk of the story to get an idea of the content. Before you read each page, look at the picture for clues. #2 Sound out phonetically, sliding sounds together.

Word/Sentence Activities: Online interactive word games (3). Printouts: 1. Memory Game Word/Picture Matching: (hat, mat, bat), 2. Sight Words Memory Game Cards: (my, black), 3. Make a Sentence with word cards.

Print folding paper book for students to read and illustrate.

Printing from Practice Cards (in Printouts):

All letters start from the top. h: Letter h starts at the top, goes down to the bottom, goes halfway back up the line and curves over to go down again without taking the pencil off the paper. (Go down the long driveway. Wrong house! Go back up half-way and go next door.) l, t: Letters l and t start from the top, like rain. m: Letter m is the same as n, but you went to the wrong house twice! Stay on their paths. b: For letter b, go down the long path. Wrong house! Go back up half-way and do a front roll somersault. Letter b shape has a bat first; bat starts with b sound. k: For letter k, make a tall line down. That is the wall. Throw the ball against the wall and it bounces to the ground.

Draw and Write: What else can the cat sit on? A cat sat on a _____.

Oral Language: Student Discussion Questions:

- 1) What other animals have some black fur or hair on them?
- 2) If you could be a cat or a dog, which would you be? Why?
